

Spring 2011

the Bside

EXPLORING BISEXUALITY

exploring attraction | bisexual myths & stereotypes | relationships | labels & identity issues
coming out to friends, family & others | bisexuality & our other identities | finding support
sex & safer sex | biphobia | health & well-being | bisexual communities & resources

A 10 week group for people who are exploring their attraction to more than one gender or struggling with what their bisexuality means to them and their lives.

Mondays 6:30-9:00 PM
March 14th to May 16th, 2011

333 Sherbourne Street

The group will provide:

Respect for the diverse possibilities of identity and a wide range of life experiences.

Opportunities for self-reflection, personal sharing, connecting with others and learning new skills and information.

A safe and supportive environment for exploring each person's unique relationship to bisexuality facilitated by

Cheryl Dobinson

a bisexual activist involved in bi-related education, health research and community development.

& David Yeh

an LGBTQ community educator, counsellor and expressive arts therapist.

*Space is limited and pre-registration is required.
To register, please contact Fatema Mullan at 416.324.4100
x 5256 or email thebside@sherbourne.on.ca*

*Confidentiality is assured.
We welcome people from diverse cultural backgrounds.*