EXPLORING BISEXUALITY

exploring attraction | bisexual myths & stereotypes | relationships | labels & identity issues
coming out to friends, family & others | bisexuality & our other identities | finding support
sex & safer sex | biphobia | health & well-being | bisexual communities & resources

An 8 week group for people who are exploring their attraction to more than one gender or struggling with what bisexuality means to them and their lives.

Mondays
6:30-9:00pm
February 11 to April 7
333 Sherbourne Street

The group will provide:

Respect for the diverse possibilities of identity and a wide range of life experiences.

Opportunities for self-reflection, personal sharing, connecting with others and learning new skills and information.

A safe and supportive environment for exploring each person's unique relationship to bisexuality facilitated by

Cheryl Dobinson

a bisexual activist who is involved in bi-related education, health research and community development.

& David Yeh

an LGBTQ community educator, counsellor and expressive arts therapist.
